Our raffle prize: Diane Dassow is providing the raffle prize in the form of a gift certificate for a Binding Legacies service— "Tell Your Story." Diane will conduct a 90-minute interview with the lucky winner to record life stories or memories, and give her a copy of the interview on CD. The service is a $195 value.

Questions? Sandy Henry (630-495-3978). RSVP by Feb. 9

AAUW Board Candidate Slate

The Nominating Committee has presented the slate for the coming term:

President: Barb Kozi

VP Programs: Karla Bullett

Treasurer: Danielle Byron

We will vote on these positions at our Feb 14 luncheon.

Thank you to the committee— Danielle Byron, Barb Kozi, and Carol Hester.

AAUW advances equity for women and girls through advocacy, education, philanthropy, and research.

AAUW Funds is the world's largest source of funding exclusively for graduate women. The Funds also work to combat sex discrimination in higher education and the workplace.

Letter from the President

I hope your winter has not been as hectic as mine. I don't know why, exactly, but it seems that almost every day has brought a new problem to solve or a new project to tackle.

At the moment, the project du jour is the upcoming Candidates' Forum. Local village and school elections are scheduled for April 7th. Voters will have an opportunity to hear from our local candidates in a forum at the Lombard Village Hall (and then available on Channel 6).

February 23, 6:30 pm: Lombard Village and Library Board candidates, and School Board Candidates for Districts 44, 45, 87, and 88

Please plan to attend this forum and urge your friends and neighbors to do so as well. This is our opportunity to become knowledgeable voters and to help others to also become informed. We will send out a schedule of the Channel 6 rebroadcasts when it becomes available.

Earlier in February, I hope to see all of you at our Annual Luncheon on February 14th, which is being held at Lexington Square. Enjoy good food and the fellowship of your fellow AAUW members while electing new officers and learning what else is coming up for our Branch during the rest of the year. Our speaker, Colleen Kennedy is going to teach us some new tricks for keeping our bodies healthy.

Barbara Kozi

AAUW Funds — New Lombard Branch Fund Program

I am pleased to announce that our branch is participating in a new program with AAUW.

To celebrate the commitment of the Lombard Area (IL) Branch to supporting a variety of AAUW programs, AAUW has established the Lombard Area (IL) Branch Honorary Fund #4405 as a spendable restricted fund to be used for NCCWSL Scholarships, LAF, and Community Action Grants funding, as determined by the Lombard Area (IL) Branch.

We have committed to raise $10,000 by June 30, 2016. As of December 31, 2014, $4,050 (the amount raised by our 2014 book sale) has already been contributed towards this new goal.

I encourage those of you who wish to make individual contributions to the AAUW Funds to designate this fund by writing #4405 Lombard Branch in the memo area of your check. This is such a new fund that as of the end of January it is not yet possible to make an online contribution to this fund but hopefully that will be available soon.

If you have any questions about this, please contact me.

Laurie Driscoll - Branch Funds Chair
