President's Letter - Association Convention was great...exciting, stimulating, informative, and fun. As was New Orleans (NOLA), of course. I certainly ate more than I should have, but it was soooooo good.

The plenary sessions I attended were very informative...a panel discussion on pay equity issues and, my favorite, Robin Gerber on the leadership style of Eleanor Roosevelt, one of my heroes. I was able to attend three workshops, and you will be seeing more ideas and information from those throughout the year. In addition, we caught a showing of "The Invisible War," an extremely powerful documentary about the sexual abuse crisis in our military.

Other attendees from our branch included Kathryn Tecza, Kathy Brenniman, Doris Schertz, and Ruth Sweetser. All of us will be happy to answer questions or tell you more about our experiences at this event.

I'm aware that I have a hard act to follow. Janet and her board have done a great job for the past two years. However, we have another strong group of women on this year's board and, with their help and that of all the branch, I hope to see exciting programs and increasing membership in the year ahead.

You will be seeing more about upcoming programs from our Program VPs, Heidi Koberstine and Sandra Henry, including an exciting change for our September meeting.

Thank you all for sending me to convention as your representative. It was a great experience and one that will shape my ideas for AAUW for the next two years as we continue our work of "Empowering women since 1881."

Book Sale Update

Book Sale activities are underway. Barrels go out Monday, June 24, and will be in seven locations for six weeks. Jewel Food Stores will not have barrels this year. The new owners of the stores have changed the policy regarding community use of space in the stores. We continue to have the support of Mr. Z, Marberry/Lombard Cleaners, and First Church of Lombard.

New additions for barrels are Shannon's Butcher Shoppe on Park south of St. Charles Road, Schroeder's Ace on Westmore, Ultra Foods on Roosevelt, and Sunset Knoll Recreation Center on Finley. If you happen to be at any of our barrel collection sites this summer, please be sure to thank them for their generous support of our sale efforts.

Volunteer recruiters, Marge Ostendorf and Doris Schertz, have been concentrating on filling the slots for barrel collecting. Some members have taken several weeks/locations during the six weeks of collecting. If anyone can share those multiple weeks, it would be appreciated. Marge and Doris will be continuing to fill slots for the rest of the book sale needs. The sorting and drop off schedule is in good shape, though some slots need to be filled for sale days and move out. Also, if anyone is willing to do home pick-ups, please let me know. There should not be many calls, but it is good to be prepared.

National Honor Society teens from Glenbard East and Willowbrook have been alerted to our need for volunteers who would receive community service credit. I have a response from three. I will send out the message again when it is closer to our sorting dates. If anyone knows about teens who could use service credit have them send me an email message. We also have a small budget to pay helpers ($5 per hour) if necessary.

There are many avenues being used to advertise the book sale. Online, email, banners, and print media are all being covered. Leslie Sulla has provided everyone with files for bookmarks and "books wanted" flyers. Please print what you can and place them anywhere you have locations. (Back window of your car?) The book sale committee has decided there will be no fee for scanner use, so that can be crossed out on the old bookmarks (read note below).

Thank you to the book sale teams and all the members who are working to make this a successful sale.
Janet Miller

Special Note from Leslie:

The bookmarks that I e-mailed to members earlier in June incorrectly included a scanner fee of $10. We will not be charging an extra scanner fee. I have now uploaded a corrected version to our web site so you can download that version any time. Thanks for helping publicize our sale!
